

DN the scout oath was renewed and proceedings were closed by the singing of the National Anthem.

a The 3rd Toronto Troop held their annual St. George's Day church parade to St. Paul's Church, where Archdeacon Cody preached a most inspiring sermon to the boys.

rs. The work in the district is going along quietly but with efficiency. Pressing need is felt for leaders, and to solve this problem it is proposed to organize an officers' training class. Instructors can be arranged for and facilities provided for carrying on the scheme. The future is bright, and Boy Scouting is here to stay, keeping ever before us the fact that the movement is a character-building organization, carrying out its own policy along the lines as laid down by Sir Robert Baden-Powell.

and In the Provincial towns activities are on foot for giving a royal welcome to the Chief Scout, Sir Robert
