See Scout Show Today

Today (Friday) is the last opportunity for Scouts and Scouters to see the excellent exhibition of Scout and Cub craft at the Church of the Epiphany, Queen Street at Beatty Avenue. The 3rd Toronto Group have again demonstrated their ability to stage an exhibition which is full of interest to both young and old. On Thursday evening many Cubs throughout the Toronto district participated in the various competitions, while this evening is Scout night, when the competitions will include contests in signalling, first aid, knotting, rope spinning, etc.
